

Katarina Van Derham to Close Lenka Padysakova's Runway Show at 20th Anniversary Slovak Fashion Night

Hollywood costume designer will debut ALL HOURS during New York Fashion Week at the historic Bohemian National Hall

NEW YORK CITY, NY, UNITED STATES, August 18, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The +421 Foundation proudly announces that internationally recognized model, actress and entrepreneur Katarina Van Derham will close the runway show for acclaimed Hollywood costume and fashion designer Lenka Padysakova at this year's Slovak Fashion Night, one of New York Fashion Week's premier celebrations of Slovak fashion, artistry and culture. Trained in historical costume design, scenography and garment construction, Padysakova is best known for her distinct and cinematic approach to fashion, creating pieces that tell a story while celebrating the woman wearing them.

The 20th Anniversary Slovak Fashion Night Charity Gala will take place Thursday, September 10, 2026, from 7 to 11 p.m. at the historic Bohemian National Hall, located at 321 East 73rd Street in New York City. Known for her costume design work on major Hollywood film productions, Padysakova will bring her cinematic eye to the runway with ALL HOURS, a collection inspired by the elegance, versatility and confidence of today's woman.

ALL HOURS captures the modern rhythm of a woman's day, moving seamlessly from meetings, interviews and press appearances to lunch engagements, resort settings and red-carpet moments. Defined by clean lines, elevated construction and timeless versatility, the collection offers a refined expression of style for women who approach every occasion with confidence and intention.

As the show's finale, Van Derham will present the closing look from Padysakova's collection, culminating an evening dedicated to elevating Slovak talent on one of the world's most influential fashion stages.

"Katarina Van Derham embodies the elegance, creativity and international spirit that Slovak Fashion Night represents," said organizers from the +421 Foundation. "Having her close Lenka Padysakova's runway is a celebration of Slovak excellence and a powerful statement about the growing global influence of Slovak fashion."

The milestone event will bring together distinguished designers, cultural leaders, celebrities, media representatives and fashion industry professionals for an evening celebrating Slovak artistry and international collaboration. Guests will experience collections spanning couture gowns, avant-garde silhouettes and contemporary ready-to-wear, all blending modern European luxury with elements of traditional Slovak craftsmanship.

Slovakia is where my story began, so closing Lenka's show in New York carries an emotion that is difficult to put into words.”

Katarina Van Derham

“Slovakia is where my story began, so closing Lenka's show in New York carries an emotion that is difficult to put into words,” said Van Derham. “To walk the final look during Slovak Fashion Night's 20th anniversary feels like bringing a piece of home onto an international stage. Lenka's work reflects the imagination, discipline and quiet strength of Slovak women, and I am incredibly proud to help deliver that final, unforgettable moment.”

For two decades, Slovak Fashion Night has served as an international platform for introducing Slovakia's rich design heritage to global audiences. The annual showcase highlights exceptional craftsmanship, contemporary couture, sustainable fashion and artistic innovation while strengthening cultural ties between Slovakia and the United States.

As designers and tastemakers from around the world gather in New York, Slovak Fashion Night continues to demonstrate that Slovak fashion is not simply preserving its heritage. It is helping shape the future of global design.
