

Flow launches Sparkling Water: The Same Flow Customers Love, Now With Bubbles

Flow Sparkling brings naturally occurring electrolytes and minerals to a refreshing, zero-sugar sparkling water. Better water, better bubbles.

DE, UNITED STATES, August 18, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Not all bubbles start with real spring water. Flow Sparkling does.

Flow, the Canadian water brand known for its naturally sourced mineral spring water, announced the launch of Flow Sparkling - the same Flow water consumers love, now with a crisp, refreshing sparkle.

Made with naturally occurring minerals and electrolytes, Flow Sparkling delivers zero sugar, zero calories, and no sweeteners or artificial flavours. Available in four flavors: Original, Lemon + Ginger, Wild Berry, and Cucumber + Mint. Flow Sparkling comes in recyclable aluminum cans, creating a refreshing format made to go wherever you do.

Whether customers are reaching for hydration, refreshment, or a little more sparkle in their day, Flow Sparkling makes every sip more refreshing.

Flow Sparkling is available now at retailers across Canada and the United States, and online at flowhydration.com.

Because better bubbles start with better water.
