Mid America Bank Continues to Deliver
Community Banking with Competitive
Rates, Personalized Service, and Local Lending Expertise

Since 1997, Mid America Bank has remained committed to one simple philosophy: community banking should be personal, local, and built around helping customers find the financial solutions that best fit their lives.

With locations in Baldwin City, Eudora, Gardner, Lawrence, Norton, Palco, and Wellsville, Mid America Bank has grown alongside the communities it serves while maintaining the personal relationships and local decision-making that set community banks apart.

Today, Mid America Bank manages more than $1 billion in combined bank assets and services home loans, making it one of Kansas' leading community-focused real estate lenders.

More Than a Bank—A Financial Partner

At Mid America Bank, every customer relationship begins with a conversation.

Rather than simply offering one product, the bank's experienced lending and banking professionals work closely with each customer to understand their goals and recommend the products that best meet their needs.

"Our loan officers are not order takers," said Jeff Hill, President of Mid America Bank. "We take the time to understand each customer's situation so we can help them choose the right loan or banking product—not just the first one available."

Whether purchasing a first home, building a custom home, financing land, expanding a business, or planning for retirement, Mid America Bank provides personalized guidance every step of the way.

Investing Back Into Kansas Communities

Norton, KS Mid America Bank Grand Opening

Community involvement has always been one of Mid America Bank's defining values.

Employees actively volunteer with schools, chambers of commerce, nonprofit organizations, youth programs, community foundations, fairs, festivals, and local events throughout Kansas.

The bank believes strong communities create strong local economies, and supporting those communities extends beyond banking.

"We believe our responsibility goes beyond financial services," said David Hill, Founder and CEO of Mid America Bank. "We invest our time, talent, and resources back into the communities we serve because their success is our success."

Growing Alongside Kansas

Since opening its doors in 1997, Mid America Bank has expanded thoughtfully while remaining true to its community-first mission.

Today, with seven locations across Kansas and continued investment in local neighborhoods, businesses, families, and homeownership, Mid America Bank continues to build lasting relationships—one customer at a time.

Whether customers are opening their first checking account, financing a dream home, expanding a business, saving for retirement, or looking for competitive CD rates, Mid America Bank is committed to providing trusted advice, local decision-making, and exceptional customer service.
