

Celebrate America's 250th Anniversary at Summers Farm's Corn Maze and Fall Festival

Explore a one-of-a-kind patriotic corn maze—a larger-than-life tribute at Summers Farm -- where families celebrate a beloved fall festival tradition.

MIDDLETOWN, MD, UNITED STATES, August 18, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In celebration of America's 250th anniversary, Summers Farm invites guests to experience a one-of-a-kind patriotic corn maze honoring this historic national milestone. The immersive attraction combines American pride with the farm's signature fall traditions, including the Flower Festival, farm-fresh food, family-friendly activities, and scenic countryside views.

As the nation marks this once-in-a-generation occasion, Summers Farm's 2026 corn maze offers visitors a unique opportunity to celebrate America's memorable heritage while creating lasting memories with family and friends. To celebrate this year's fall festival, the patriotic maze launches August 22 and runs through November 1; however, Summers Farm will be closed from Sept 8-Sept 25 but will reopen on September 26 through November 1. In addition, the Flower Festival will run every weekend from August 22 through Sept 7, 2026.

What better way to experience a patriotic, memorable opportunity of a very historic moment in our nation as Americans!”

Teresa Summers

“This year's themed maze is this year's last hoorah to celebrate our country's independence,” said Teresa Summers, who owns and operates Summers Farm with her two sons. “What better way to experience a patriotic, memorable opportunity of a very historic moment in our nation as Americans – and, in a fun and engaging way!”

When Summers Farm opens to the public for seasonal fun,
