

Award-Winning Author Anne Teagarden Offers Hope and Healing to Women Facing Infertility and Unanswered Prayer

DAHLONEGA, GA, UNITED STATES, August 19, 2026

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Author Anne Teagarden has received the Hope, Healing and Personal Transformation Award from the Prestigious International Hope Book Awards for her debut book, Still Fulfilled: A Christian Faith Journey Through the Heartache of Infertility, the Hope of Adoption and God's Healing Grace.

Many women feel isolated in their infertility journey. I share my story so other women know they are not alone and that fulfillment is possible even when life does not unfold as they expect.”

Anne Teagarden

The book also earned the PIHBA Literary Excellence Distinction, the organization's highest recognition for books that demonstrate exceptional inspirational impact, literary quality, and lasting influence on readers.

In its evaluation, the judging panel described Still Fulfilled as “a beautifully written and deeply moving testament to faith, perseverance, and God's redeeming love,” praising Teagarden's honesty, literary craftsmanship, and ability to transform the pain of infertility into a powerful message of hope.

Infertility affects millions of women, yet many carry its emotional and spiritual burdens in silence. In Still Fulfilled, Teagarden shares her personal journey through infertility and adoption while offering hope, encouragement, and guidance to women navigating one of life's most difficult seasons.

Part memoir, part devotional, and part guided journal, Still Fulfilled provides a faith-centered space for women to process grief, disappointment, fear, and unanswered prayers while drawing closer to God.

“Many women feel isolated in their infertility journey,” said Teagarden. “I share my story so other women will know they are not alone and that fulfillment is possible even when life does not unfold the way they expect.”

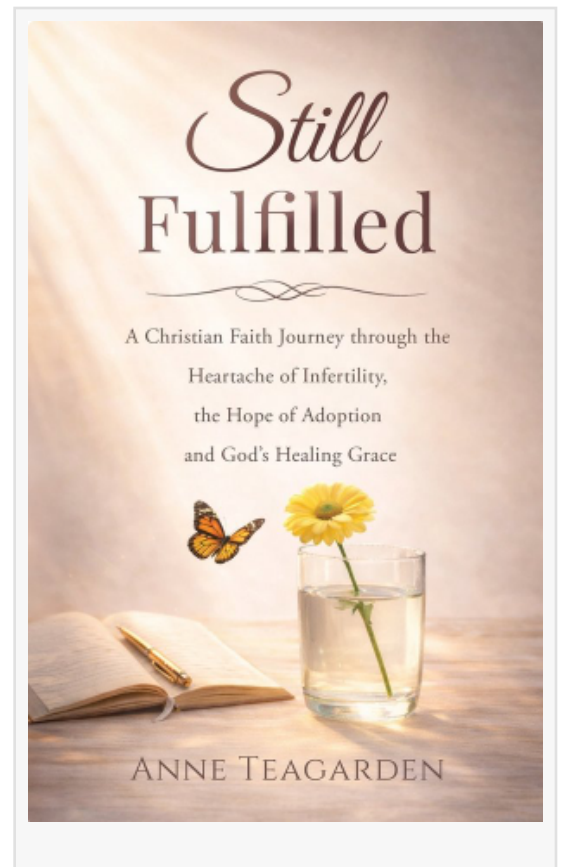

Through personal reflections, prayers, and thoughtful journaling prompts, the book encourages readers to discover healing, embrace God's presence in seasons of waiting, and find their identity in Christ rather than allowing their circumstances to define them.

In addition to receiving the Hope, Healing and Personal Transformation Award, Still Fulfilled was named as a finalist in both the 2026 Golden Scroll Awards, presented by the Advanced Writers and Speakers Association and the 2026 Kingdom Book Awards

Written for women currently experiencing infertility, those who have walked through infertility in the past, couples considering adoption, church support groups, and Christian counselors, Still Fulfilled offers a message of hope, healing, and lasting fulfillment rooted in God's grace.

Still Fulfilled is available through Amazon, Barnes & Noble, Books-A-Million, and other major booksellers.

About the Author

Anne Teagarden is an award-winning Christian author, speaker, and mentor dedicated to helping women experience God's healing, hope, and presence during life's most difficult seasons. For more than 30 years, Anne and her husband, Grant, have ministered to and mentored couples with compassion, wisdom, and biblical encouragement.

Drawing from her personal journey through infertility and adoption, Anne wrote Still Fulfilled to remind women that they are never alone and that God's purpose for their lives extends far beyond their circumstances. Through honest storytelling and biblical encouragement, she inspires others to hear God's voice, trust His timing, and find freedom in Him—even when prayers seem to go unanswered.
