

'ACROSS LIGHT' BY GRAMMY NOMINEE LAURENCE BAER EXPLORES FAITH, FAMILY, HEALING, CELEBRATING LIFE, & OUR RETURN TO GOD

Grammy-nominated songwriter Laurence Baer launches Across Light on August 21 with "This Holy Ground," the first chapter in a 21-song musical journey.

ELLCOTT CITY, MD, UNITED STATES, August 21, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Grammy-nominated songwriter and accomplished composer Laurence Baer announces the upcoming global release of his highly anticipated 21-song concept masterwork, Across

Light, dropping worldwide on August 21, 2026. Striking an impeccable balance between intellectual wit, traditional gospel reverence, and timeless roots craftsmanship, the sprawling collection showcases a lifetime of seasoned, award-caliber songwriting. At the absolute center of Across Light is a profound, unifying spiritual journey built upon five indivisible pillars: Faith, Family, Healing, Celebrating Life, and Mankind's Return to God.

The Strategic 21-Day Waterfall Rollout

Across Light begins its global unveiling with a disciplined, single-driven waterfall rollout starting on August 21, 2026, dropping a targeted, sequential musical chapter every 21 days across all major global streaming networks. The first four sequential releases are meticulously selected to showcase the immense sonic depth of the project:

Focus Chapter 1: "This Holy Ground" – The driving lead anthem blending soulful acoustic roots with powerful gospel-pop choral energy.

Focus Chapter 2: "Baby's Baby Bump" – A vibrant, upbeat contemporary gospel original co-written alongside international icon Darren Holden of The High Kings and elevated by a nuanced, delicate backing choir.

Focus Chapter 3: "Effortlessly" – A brilliantly upbeat, uplifting gospel-jazz track exploring the empowerment of aligning with our true nature.

Focus Chapter 4: "I've Been Blessed" – An explosive roots-gospel anthem co-produced by legacy blues, boogie-woogie virtuoso, and renowned race relations expert Daryl Davis.

The Timely Call for National, Family, & Spiritual Renewal

Positioned at the front of this massive rollout is "This Holy Ground". Timed perfectly to capture the cultural spirit of America's historic 250th anniversary celebration, the anthem confronts modern civil division not with malice, but with a profound call for personal accountability, collective family revival, and national healing. Reframing civil friction as a shared human trauma, Baer uses timeless biblical imagery to inspire listeners to look past societal fractures and rebuild a unified "City on a Hill".

A Versatile Audio Tapestry of Legacy and Devotion

The 21-song collection functions as an emotional ledger of light and shadow, seamlessly transitioning across diverse musical movements and deeply personal stories. Listeners will journey through heartfelt, acoustic soul ballads like "My Favorite Girl" and the humorous, theatrical tune "Grandkids," which capture the intimate, warm rewards of aging, lineage, and family companionship as the core of a faith-filled life.

The International Arc & Humanitarian Tribute

This message of unity gracefully expands across the album's international narrative arc. The collection features a powerful, conscious trilogy of tracks—including the moving folk-gospel ballad "We Long To Go Home" and the majestic choir anthem "On Earth"—inspired by the global peace initiatives and humanitarian endurance of Dr. Hak Ja Han, an 83-year-old North Korean-born human rights advocate, political prisoner, and Nobel Peace Prize nominee.

Cultural Leadership & The Peace Stars Initiative

Running parallel to this musical timeline, Laurence Baer is currently spearheading the rollout of Peace Stars (peacestars.tv), a project of the 501 (C) 3 101 Education Institute. Designed to bridge cultural divides and foster international healing through the universal power of song, the platform is preparing for its major competition launch with the support of an elite global advisory board. This board features 13x Grammy-nominated rock artist Dianne Meinke and legacy boogie-woogie pianist Daryl Davis — celebrated for his historic 32-year tenure as the piano player for Rock 'n' Roll pioneer Chuck Berry.

Production & Copyright Innovation Note

Sourced from Baer's original copyrighted chords, melodies, and lyrics, the pristine vocal arrangements, multi-part harmonies, and cinematic orchestration across these master recordings are realized utilizing advanced commercial AI synthesis tools on an enterprise paid tier under his direct studio orchestration to execute release-ready arrangements. Laurence and his co-writers collectively retain 100% immediate, one-stop clearable publishing and master rights for every song in this project.

B2B MEDIA INQUIRIES & INTERVIEW AVAILABILITY

Accredited journalists, cultural outlets, and digital creators can secure exclusive access to private advance streams of the first four tracks, alongside an exclusive 5-minute advance trailer montage to distribute directly to their audiences. For participating publishers, our media desk will provide a dedicated project feature link designed to safely route your readers to an automated pre-save reward hub. Laurence Baer is fully available for featured interviews via Zoom, phone, or written Q&A formats to expand upon individual chapters or the broader conceptual framework of the entire project.
