

Nola Watkins Collection Debuts New Hand-Painted Ceramic Christmas Ornaments

Family-owned Virginia studio, hand-painting keepsake ornaments since 1992, unveils new personalized, kiln-fired ceramic designs for the 2026 season.

HALIFAX, VA, UNITED STATES, August 19, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Nola Watkins Collection, a family-owned business hand-painting Christmas ornaments since 1992, today announced a new lineup of hand-painted ceramic ornaments, giving shoppers fresh personalized keepsake options ahead of the 2026 holiday season.

Every ornament in the collection is made from durable, kiln-fired ceramic and individually hand-painted by artisans, meaning no two pieces are exactly alike. The new designs join the brand's existing catalog, which spans religious, patriotic, occupational, sports, coastal, and fully custom themes, with prices starting at $24.95.

"Each ornament is more than a decoration — it's a keepsake a family can hang year after year," said Nola Watkins, founder of Nola Watkins Collection. "We wanted this year's ceramic designs to feel just as personal and lasting as the ones we've been hand-painting since 1992."

A hallmark of the collection is free personalization, applied by hand on top of the glazed ceramic. Customers can typically add a name, year, or short message to the front or back of an ornament, making each piece suited for gift-giving, family keepsakes, and holiday collections that grow year after year.

Each ceramic ornament measures approximately 3.5 inches wide, is roughly 1/4-inch thick for heirloom-quality durability, and ships in a complimentary gift box, ready for giving. Standard production takes 3 to 6 business days off-season and 2 to 4 business days during the November–December holiday rush, with orders shipping via USPS. Customers who order online currently receive free shipping on qualifying orders.

The new ceramic designs are available now at nolawatkins.com, alongside the brand's full range of hand-painted ornaments. Nola Watkins Collection products are also sold through more than a dozen independent gift shops and Christmas specialty stores across the United States, and the company offers wholesale pricing for qualifying retailers.

Nola Watkins Collection is made in the USA and based in Virginia. Since 1992, the family-owned business has built a reputation for hand-painted craftsmanship and personal customer service, with products designed to become treasured parts of customers' holiday traditions.
