

Ticket Shield, PLLC Opens New Office in Fort Myers, Expanding Traffic Defense to Lee County Drivers

The Florida traffic defense firm adds a Lee County location, giving Southwest Florida drivers direct access to a local attorney.

FORT MYERS, FL, UNITED STATES, August 20, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Ticket Shield, PLLC, a Florida law firm focused on traffic ticket and traffic criminal defense, has opened a new office in Fort Myers. The office is located at 3049 Cleveland Ave, #257, Fort Myers, FL 33901, and will serve drivers across Lee County and the surrounding Southwest Florida region.

The firm already represents clients in all 67 Florida counties. This office gives Lee County drivers a local point of contact for their cases, backed by the same direct-access model Ticket Shield uses statewide: clients work with a licensed attorney by phone or text, not a call center or an automated app.

"Drivers in Lee County face the same subjective judgment calls and mandatory court dates as drivers anywhere else in Florida," said Nick Marzuk, Founder and Partner at Ticket Shield, PLLC. "Having a physical office here means we can serve this community more directly, and it puts a local presence behind a firm that already handles cases across the state."

Ticket Shield handles traffic tickets, DUI, and traffic criminal matters, including speeding, careless and reckless driving, red light violations, and license issues. The firm was founded by Nick Marzuk, a Florida Bar member since 2012, and includes partner Jason S. Goldsmith, a former Assistant State Attorney who led a felony trial unit in Broward County. In more than 99% of its ticket cases, clients never have to appear in court themselves.

The Fort Myers office is now open and accepting new clients. Drivers with a Florida citation can request a free case review by calling Ticket Shield or submitting their ticket online at ticketshield.com.
