

Micki Love Named a 2026 Nashville Titan 100 Honoree

cj Advertising CEO and President recognized among Nashville's top business leaders for second consecutive year

NASHVILLE, TN, UNITED STATES, August 20, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Titan CEO and headline sponsor RMG Erectors & Constructors are pleased to announce Micki Love, CEO and President of cj Advertising, as a 2026 Nashville Titan 100 honoree. This marks the second consecutive year Love has received the honor.

Micki Love honored as 2026 Nashville Titan

The Titan 100 program recognizes Nashville's Top 100 CEOs and C-level executives. Honorees are among the area's most accomplished business leaders and are selected based on criteria that include exceptional leadership, vision, and passion.

Being recognized by the Nashville Titan 100 for a second year is incredibly meaningful, and I'm especially proud to share it with our cj team and the law firms that trust us every day.”

Together, the 2026 Nashville Titan 100 honorees and their companies generate more than $31 billion in annual revenue and employ more than 117,000 people across the region and beyond. This year's honorees will be published in a limited-edition Titan 100 digital book and profiled exclusively online. They will be honored at the annual awards ceremony in November 2026 and will have opportunities throughout the year to connect with fellow Titans.

“This year's Titans represent more than success; they embody resilience, purpose, and transformation,” said Jaime Zawmon, President of Titan CEO. “Being a Titan is not just a title; it is a mindset, a way of leading with courage, serving with integrity, and creating something that outlasts you. It is about lifting those around you and leaving a legacy that inspires others to rise. These leaders stand as proof that the future of business is driven by those who turn vision into lasting impact.”

For cj Advertising, Love’s second consecutive Titan 100 recognition reflects the kind of leadership the agency values every day: staying close to clients, watching the numbers, challenging the way things have always been done, and helping personal injury firms prepare for what comes next.

That work has become increasingly important as the personal injury industry changes.

In addition to shifts in media, technology, intake, and consumer behavior, PI firms are navigating new business structures, including the development of legal management services organizations, or MSOs. Love works with firm leaders to think through those changes from operational and business perspectives while keeping the focus where it belongs: building healthy firms that can continue to serve their clients well.

“Personal injury is changing quickly, and that means our firms have to keep learning and adapting,” Love said. “I love helping law firm leaders look at what is happening in the business, understand their numbers, and build the right plan for their firm. There is no one-size-fits-all answer. Being recognized by the Nashville Titan 100 for a second year is incredibly meaningful, and I’m especially proud to share it with our cj team and the law firms that trust us every day.”

Love brings decades of personal injury experience to that work. She began her career as a runner for a Kentucky PI law firm and spent more than 23 years helping grow the organization from a local practice into a multi-office firm with 175 employees. She later consulted with law firms nationwide before joining cj Advertising, where she has helped expand the agency from a traditional advertising partner into a broader resource for marketing strategy, digital services, operations, intake, data, and firm growth.

Her approach remains rooted in a simple belief: law firms need to know their numbers, understand their clients, and build systems that support sustainable growth. At cj Advertising, that perspective helps connect marketing decisions with what happens after the phone rings, from intake and client experience to operational efficiency and long-term planning.

Love will be honored at the Titan 100 awards celebration in November 2026. The cocktail-style event will bring together 100 Titans of Industry for an evening of celebration, camaraderie, and networking within the Nashville business community.

As Headline Sponsor of the Nashville Titan 100, RMG Erectors & Constructors joins Titan CEO in recognizing this year’s honorees.

“As a three-time Titan 100 honoree, I’ve seen firsthand the impact this community can have,” said Bobby Mesmer, CEO of RMG Erectors & Constructors. “Innovation, entrepreneurship, and leadership are part of the Nashville Titan DNA. On behalf of RMG and the national Titan community, we are excited to celebrate the newest class of Nashville’s top 100 leaders who are shaping the future of this incredible city.”
