

iORBIT Named an IDC Innovator for Vertical AI, SaaS, and Industry Clouds, 2026

GA, UNITED STATES, August 21, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- iORBIT is proud to announce that it has been named an IDC Innovator in the IDC Innovators: Vertical AI, SaaS, and Industry Clouds, 2026 report (Doc #US53051426, June 2026).

An IDC Innovators report presents a set of vendors – under $100M in annual revenue at the time of selection – chosen by an IDC analyst within a specific market that offer a new technology, a groundbreaking solution to an existing issue, and/or an innovative business model.

iORBIT Named IDC Innovator for Vertical AI, SaaS, and Industry Clouds, 2026

We are honored to have iORBIT named as an IDC Innovator," said Bipin RR, Founder and CEO of iORBIT Digital Technologies. "We believe this recognition reinforces our vision of enabling connected healthcare through iTOUCH, our open, vendor-agnostic IoMT platform. Our focus remains on delivering innovative technologies that simplify interoperability, improve clinical workflows, and support better patient outcomes."

This recognition reinforces our vision of enabling connected healthcare through iTOUCH, our open, vendor-agnostic IoMT platform"

Bipin R. R., Founder CEO

iTOUCH is a secure, vendor-agnostic Internet of Medical Things (IoMT) cloud platform that seamlessly connects, integrates, and manages data from a wide range of medical devices, including wearables, patient monitors, critical care equipment, imaging systems, and hospital information systems. Designed specifically for healthcare, the platform enables real-time device connectivity, remote patient monitoring, unified healthcare data management, and seamless interoperability while meeting stringent security, privacy, and regulatory compliance requirements.

With built-in AI capabilities, iTOUCH transforms healthcare data into actionable insights that empower clinicians to make faster, more informed decisions, improve patient outcomes, and enhance operational efficiency across the continuum of care.

"We believe this being named an IDC Innovator reinforces our mission of transforming possibilities into reality through breakthrough MedTech innovation and next-generation healthcare cloud technologies," added Bipin RR.
