FREDERICK, MD - August 2026 - Spectra Auto Services has launched a new website to strengthen its digital presence. The site gives drivers in Frederick, MD, and nearby areas a more direct, modern way to explore services and schedule repairs. The new website gives Spectra a modern online platform that reflects the reputation it has built since 1989. It also supports continued growth among local families and vehicle owners.

Spectra Auto Services has served Frederick since opening in 1989. Owner Chris Adams joined the shop in 1993 and purchased the business in April 2024. Since then, the shop has set new sales records each year and is on track for another record year in 2026. The new site is designed to carry that momentum forward by giving customers a clearer, easier way to connect with the shop online.

The website makes it simple for drivers to explore auto repair services in Frederick, MD. These inspections show customers the condition of their vehicle and support informed repair decisions through clear, transparent communication. The new site reinforces the values that set Spectra apart: honest recommendations, transparent pricing, and a modern customer experience delivered by highly trained technicians. Spectra is a CARFAX Certified and TechNet Professional shop equipped with Hunter wheel alignment technology. The team combines long-standing local trust with the tools and training needed to service today's domestic, Asian, and European vehicles.
