

Momentum, Inc. Earns New Jersey WBE Certification, Advancing Strategic Growth

New Jersey WBE certification strengthens Momentum's ability to build new partnerships and expand its presence across the Mid-Atlantic.

CAMP HILL, PA, UNITED STATES, August 19, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Momentum, Inc., a leading IT and management consulting firm serving public and private sector organizations throughout the Mid-Atlantic, today announced that it has earned Women Business Enterprise (WBE) certification from the State of New Jersey.

Momentum, Inc. earns New Jersey WBE certification, advancing the company's strategic growth across the Mid-Atlantic.

The certification marks an important step in Momentum's strategic growth as the company looks to expand the strong capabilities and client relationships it has established in its current markets, particularly Pennsylvania and Maryland, into additional states. With the New Jersey certification in place, Momentum can now place greater strategic focus on building its presence, relationships, and opportunities throughout the state.

Our expansion into New Jersey is a natural next step in our growth. This certification gives us another avenue to build relationships across the state.”

Ashley Hock, President and CEO, Momentum, Inc.

“Momentum has built a strong foundation by delivering meaningful results and becoming a trusted partner to our clients,” said Ashley Hock, President and CEO of Momentum. “Our expansion into New Jersey is a natural next step in our growth. This certification gives us another avenue to build new relationships and bring our experience and capabilities to organizations across the state.”

to help clients navigate complex challenges and achieve sustainable results.

New Jersey is a strategic growth market for Momentum as the company continues to expand its presence across the Mid-Atlantic. Momentum will focus on developing relationships with New Jersey organizations and partners while building on the experience, capabilities, and successful delivery model established across its existing markets.

“This is an exciting milestone because it supports how we want to grow,” said Sue Engels, Chief Client Officer of Momentum. “We are taking capabilities that have been proven with our clients and intentionally expanding them into new markets. New Jersey is an important part of that strategy, and we look forward to building the relationships that will allow us to become a trusted partner in the state.”

Momentum’s certification was issued by the New Jersey Department of the Treasury, Division of Revenue & Enterprise Services, under the Minority and Women Business Certification Program.
