Legal Thriller for his debut novel, Tequila, A Story of Success Love & Violence.

Stephen Raucher represents businesses and individuals in complex business, real estate, and insurance coverage disputes at the trial and appellate levels. His recent successes include securing an appellate reversal in a partnership dispute that ultimately produced a benefit exceeding $5 million for his client, obtaining a favorable summary judgment for a landlord in a nuisance action, and persuading an insurer to defend its policyholder in a significant habitability dispute. Raucher has also co-authored the insurance law chapter of the California Lawyers Association's California Litigation Review for many years and regularly speaks on developments in California insurance law.

Stephanie Blum is a Certified Family Law Specialist with more than 25 years of experience representing clients in high-stakes divorce, custody, domestic violence and complex financial matters. Known for her strategic judgment and ability to manage particularly contentious disputes, Blum has secured favorable custody and financial outcomes through both litigation and negotiated resolution. Her recent results include preserving a parent's joint legal custody in a complex paternity matter, resolving a protracted divorce through mediation with favorable custody and financial terms, and securing a multimillion-dollar recovery in a long-running marital property dispute.

Trenton Hartzler, selected to Rising Stars for the third consecutive year, is a talented family law attorney providing insightful and results-driven representation. His continued recognition reflects his growing reputation and commitment to excellence in family law.
