Mark your calendars for an evening that makes a real difference! Join us on Friday, Sept. 18 for Paws for a Celebration, FOHA's signature fundraising dinner at River Creek Club. Every ticket helps us raise critical funds for rescue, urgent medical care, and shelter.

"This event is about celebrating everything our community makes possible for the animals who need us most," said Alison Mauroff, Executive Director of Friends of Homeless Animals. "Every dollar raised goes directly toward urgent medical care, training, and shelter for the dogs and cats waiting for their second chance."

According to Best Friends Animal Society, Virginia is on track to become the largest no-kill state in the country.

Proceeds from Paws for a Celebration help FOHA be part of that progress, supporting its ongoing mission to provide medical care, training, and safe shelter to homeless animals throughout the region until they find permanent homes.
