Recognising Quality, Care and Development Across Childcare Services

The achievements recognised in the 2026 Childcare Services Awards demonstrate the breadth of work taking place across the sector. Strong provision can take many forms, including early years environments where purposeful play and everyday experiences develop independence, language and confidence; reliable wraparound services responding to the practical needs of working families; and enrichment programmes combining physical activity, creativity, STEM learning, leadership and life skills. Across these different models, the common thread is an understanding that effective childcare must respond to children as individuals while giving families confidence in the people responsible for their care.

This year's recognised organisations also demonstrate the importance of investing in the people and systems behind high-quality provision. Achievements include professional development and accredited training for staff, reflective approaches to early years practice, close partnerships with parents and local communities, inclusive support for differing needs, and carefully developed safeguarding cultures. Some providers have complemented this work with nature-based learning, community initiatives, youth volunteering and employment pathways, while others have maintained high standards as their services have expanded.

The awards further recognise the responsibility involved in supporting children whose circumstances or needs require additional stability and consistency. From trauma-informed residential care and continued relationships with young people after they leave a service, to programmes designed to build resilience, address bullying and strengthen social and emotional skills, the entries show how childcare can extend beyond supervision to provide meaningful support during important stages of a child's development. Business Awards UK congratulates all Winners and Finalists for the commitment, professionalism and care reflected in their work.
