

EKC PR Signs Award-Winning Filmmaker Scott Hadley Morgan

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, August 20, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- EKC PR has signed award-winning writer, producer, director and author Scott Hadley Morgan as he launches Event Horizon Studio and its proprietary Event Horizon Multiverse.

The studio is designed to merge filmmaking, technology, gaming and influencer communities, creating new ways to develop, finance and experience film and television. Morgan's technology integration begins at the script level and incorporates gamer and influencer audiences into the entertainment ecosystem.

The Event Horizon Multiverse draws on the fanbase and financing models of platforms such as Roblox and OnlyFans, with Morgan envisioning a new connection between intellectual property, filmmakers, gamers and influencers.

Morgan is also the author of two new books, Multiverses of Entertainment and Accelerating Intelligence. Multiverses of Entertainment explores what AI can, should and should not do in entertainment, while Accelerating Intelligence examines the acceleration of human and technological intelligence and challenges conventional thinking about the limits of the human mind.

Morgan has more than three decades of entertainment-industry experience. His first film received Best Actress, Best Director and Best Picture honors, and he was among the early filmmakers to utilize high-definition camera technology provided by Panavision. He was also mentored by Barry London of Paramount.

The books are available at a $20 discount via his website, www.eventhorizon.studio.
