Projects of this size require much more than simply putting paint on a building... We're proud to be working on a property of this scale in the heart of Hollywood.”

Evan Murray, President of Precision Construction and Painting

The large-scale property consists of four seven-story buildings, creating a significant painting project that requires careful planning, coordination, safety management, and consistent workmanship across multiple structures.

Located in the heart of Hollywood, El Centro is a highly visible property along one of Los Angeles' best-known commercial and residential corridors. The project gives Precision Construction and Painting an opportunity to demonstrate its experience handling complex, multi-building properties while maintaining quality standards throughout each phase of the work.

“Projects of this size require much more than simply putting paint on a building,” said Evan Murray, President of Precision Construction and Painting. “Our team has to coordinate crews, access, safety, preparation, scheduling, and quality control across four separate seven-story buildings. We’re proud to be working on a property of this scale in the heart of Hollywood.”

Precision Construction and Painting has extensive experience working with property managers, commercial building owners, multifamily communities, and homeowners associations throughout Southern California. The company regularly handles projects where maintaining access, protecting residents and surrounding areas, and keeping work progressing efficiently are critical.

Precision Construction and Painting delivers professional interior and exterior painting services to a wide range of properties, including:

- HOAs
- Multi-family properties
- Commercial buildings
- Residential properties

Other services Precision Construction and Painting offers include:

- Wood and Balcony Inspections (Community-wide)
- SB 326 Repairs
- Painting (Community-wide)
- Wood Replacement (Community-wide)
