"Winning the Canadian Choice Award is an incredible honour for Oshi's Daycare and means so much to our entire team," said Nadia Cueva, Director of Oshi's Daycare Inc. "This recognition reflects the passion, dedication, and hard work that our educators and staff bring to the centre every day. Caring for children is more than a profession for us. It's a responsibility and privilege that we take to heart."

For Cueva and her team, the award carries special significance because it reflects the trust and support of the families and community they serve.

"What makes this award especially meaningful is that it represents the trust and support of the families and community we serve," Cueva added. "Every child's smile, milestone, and success inspires us to continue providing a nurturing, safe, and enriching environment where children can grow with confidence."

According to Oshi's Daycare, the recognition has helped increase awareness of its programs and reinforce the trust families place in its team. The award has also boosted team morale and reinforced the organization's commitment to delivering exceptional childcare and early learning experiences.
