Tarter Krinsky & Drogin Marks 25 Years of Strategic Growth

Tarter Krinsky & Drogin celebrates a quarter-century of success, innovation & investment ahead of the market

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, August 21, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- NEW YORK — Tarter Krinsky & Drogin, a leading national mid-size law firm with 30 practice groups and offices across five states, marks its 25th anniversary in the summer of 2026.

Founded in Midtown Manhattan in July 2001 by Alan Tarter, Laurent Drogin, and Andrew Krinsky, the firm entered a legal market that was undergoing rapid consolidation. The founders had a distinct vision to deliver sophisticated, full-service legal counsel to clients ranging from emerging companies to established institutions through a relationship-driven culture.

Initially the firm practices were grounded in core strengths including Corporate, Securities, M&A, Real Estate, Litigation, and Labor and Employment. Over time, new practice areas were added to include Bankruptcy, Construction, International, Tax, Immigration, Intellectual Property, Cybersecurity & Privacy, Matrimonial, Landlord & Tenant, Art Law, White Collar Defense & Regulatory Enforcement, and Healthcare. Today its services span over 30 practice areas.

The past quarter-century has seen continuous commitment in the firm's people, innovation, and client services, fueling growth that has resulted in 150 attorneys across offices in New York, New Jersey, California, Florida and Texas, while also serving a robust international client roster that spans Italian, German, French, Canadian, Turkish, Chinese and Indian and Benelux practice areas.

The firm's newest initiative for 2026 is the creation of its Office of AI and Innovation, reflecting a continuation of the firm's forward-looking approach. Through this initiative, Tarter Krinsky & Drogin is establishing itself as an AI leader in the middle-market, driving the responsible adoption of cutting-edge AI to enhance client service, strengthen operational excellence, and equip its attorneys with the tools and knowledge to thrive in an evolving legal landscape.

"Twenty-five years ago, we built a firm around the belief that exceptional legal work and a culture where talented people enjoy working together could coexist," said Alan Tarter, Managing Partner of Tarter Krinsky & Drogin. "We have always been willing to invest in the future, whether that's our people, our technology, or the ways we serve our clients.

"That same commitment to evolving with our clients and investing in our people has shaped every major decision we've made, from expanding our capabilities and geographic reach to developing our professionals and embracing new technologies and ways of delivering legal services," said Andrew Krinsky, co-founder of the firm.

"Every chapter of our history has been defined by anticipating where our clients are headed while never losing sight of the people who make this firm what it is," said Laurent Drogin, co-founder of Tarter Krinsky & Drogin.
