Mavis Tire is one of the largest automotive service providers in the United States, operating a rapidly expanding network of service centers nationwide through continued growth and acquisition-driven development. As the brand scales across multiple states, maintaining consistent storefront visibility and exterior branding remains a key component of its customer-facing identity.

For the Houston location, Houston Sign Company was responsible for the full scope of fabrication and installation of a custom fabric awning designed to meet Mavis Tire's branding requirements and operational needs. The awning was engineered for durability, weather resistance, and long-term performance in a high-traffic automotive retail environment.

DooleyMack Constructors served as the general contractor on the project, overseeing scheduling, site coordination, and overall execution. Their involvement ensured smooth alignment between fabrication timelines and on-site installation requirements, enabling efficient project delivery with minimal disruption.

Although a single-location installation, the project required precise coordination between all stakeholders to ensure brand consistency, structural alignment, and high-quality workmanship. Houston Sign Company utilized in-house fabrication expertise and experienced installation crews to deliver a clean, durable, and brand-aligned final result.

This project highlights Houston Sign Company's capability to support nationally recognized brands and general contractors with reliable, detail-oriented signage and awning solutions across the Houston market and beyond.
