LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, August

25, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- partneringONE, the world's leading conference platform for facilitating one-to-one meetings, today announced it will power the official networking platform for London Life Sciences Week 2026, taking place 15-20 November in London, UK.

The partneringONE networking platform will enable life sciences professionals attending events throughout the week to discover fellow participants, make meaningful connections, and schedule one-to-one meetings from 17-20 November.

Dedicated meeting space will be available at The View in The Royal College of Surgeons on Tuesday, 17 November and Wednesday, 18 November, with participants also able to arrange meetings at locations of their choice across the four-day networking period.

London Life Sciences Week is hosted in partnership with London and Partners, MedCity, and the BioIndustry Association (BIA), bringing together the global life sciences community for a dynamic week of events, meetings and networking, attracting investors, founders, policymakers, business leaders and innovators from around the world.

"partneringONE is proud to support London Life Sciences Week as the official networking platform," said Anna Chrisman, President, Pharma and Life Sciences at Informa Connect. "Since launching in 2006, our platform now facilitates over 95,000 one-to-one partnering meetings annually across the global life sciences ecosystem. London Life Sciences Week brings together the industry's most innovative minds, and we're committed to ensuring attendees can identify and connect with the right partners to advance their most promising opportunities."

Key Features of partneringONE:

- Free registration for all life sciences professionals attending London Life Sciences Week events
- Discover and connect with investors, partners, and collaborators through advanced search capabilities

- One login access across all partneringONE events, with partnering history from past events
- Mobile responsive platform accessible from any device without downloading an app

Life sciences professionals can register now to create their profile, explore attendees, and begin scheduling meetings ahead of the week. Early registration is encouraged to maximise networking opportunities.
