

Peachtree Pest Control Named 2026 Top Workplaces Culture Excellence Awards Winner

Company recognized in eight Culture Excellence categories and earned 12 additional culture badges, including 10 placing Peachtree among Top 5% of organizations

SUWANEE, GA, UNITED STATES, August 24, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Peachtree Pest Control has been named a 2026 Top Workplaces Culture Excellence Awards winner, recognizing the company's commitment to creating a workplace where employees feel valued, supported, and empowered.

Peachtree Pest Control is proud to be recognized with eight Culture Excellence Awards as part of the 2026 Top Workplaces program

The recognition comes through Top Workplaces, a program powered by Energage that uses anonymous employee feedback to recognize organizations with strong workplace cultures.

These recognitions are especially meaningful because they come directly from our employees. We want to be a place where people feel valued, supported, and empowered to grow.”

Bryan Cummings, President of Peachtree Pest Control

Peachtree earned Culture Excellence recognition in eight categories, including:

- Compensation & Benefits
- Employee Well-Being
- Innovation
- Leadership
- Professional Development
- Purpose & Values
- Work-Life Flexibility
- Employee Appreciation

In addition to the Culture Excellence Awards, Peachtree earned 12 Top Workplaces culture badges, further highlighting the strength of its workplace culture. Ten of the badges placed Peachtree in the Top 5% of organizations, while two placed the company in the Top 25%.

Peachtree's culture badges include:

- Top 5% - Clued-In Employees

- Top 5% - Trusted Leader
- Top 5% - Supportive Managers
- Top 5% - Open Minded
- Top 5% - Leaders In-The-Know
- Top 5% - Innovation
- Top 5% - Employee Appreciation
- Top 5% - Cross-Team Cooperation
- Top 5% - Company Direction
- Top 5% - Work-Life Balance
- Top 25% - Strong Values
- Top 25%- Meaningful Work

“These recognitions are especially meaningful because they come directly from our employees,” said Bryan Cummings, President of Peachtree Pest Control. “We want Peachtree to be a place where people feel valued, supported, and empowered to grow. To be recognized across so many areas of workplace culture is something we are incredibly proud of, and it reflects the people who make Peachtree what it is every day.”

The recognition reflects Peachtree’s commitment to building a workplace where employees can develop professionally, maintain a healthy work-life balance, and contribute new ideas.

Peachtree provides competitive compensation and benefits, paid time off, health coverage, and ongoing training and professional development opportunities. The company also emphasizes supportive leadership, collaboration, innovation, and an open workplace where employees are encouraged to share ideas and different perspectives.

“Earning a Top Workplaces award is a badge of honor for companies, especially because it comes authentically from their employees,” said Eric Rubino, CEO of Energage. “That’s something to be proud of. In today’s market, leaders must ensure they’re allowing employees to have a voice and be heard. That’s paramount. Top Workplaces do this, and it pays dividends.”

The Top Workplaces program has a 19-year history of recognizing people-first organizations across the country and in more than 60 regional markets. Awards are based on employee feedback collected through Energage’s research-backed employee engagement survey. For Peachtree, recognition as a Top Workplaces Culture Excellence Awards winner reinforces the company’s belief that a strong employee experience is essential to delivering a strong customer experience.

“Our employees are the foundation of our success,” said Cummings. “When we invest in our people, create opportunities for them to grow, and make sure they know their contributions matter, that ultimately benefits our customers and the communities we serve.”
