The new facility, located at Unit 3, 197 Montgomerie Road, Mangere, Auckland 2022, will be fully operational from 8 June 2026. Situated less than ten minutes from Auckland Airport, the site has been strategically selected to enhance operational efficiency and strengthen support for airlines, MROs, OEMs, lessors and aerospace suppliers requiring reliable and time-critical logistics solutions.

Our new Auckland facility represents an important step in strengthening our service offering for the aerospace sector in New Zealand...”

Lee Hedges, Branch Manager

The relocation further enhances B&H Worldwide's ability to provide a comprehensive range of aerospace logistics services, including third-party logistics (3PL) warehousing, inventory management, customs clearance, import and export handling, airside access and 24/7 Aircraft on Ground (AOG) support.

Designed to meet the specific requirements of the aerospace industry, the facility includes dedicated secure storage areas for high-value aircraft components and engines, as well as specialised shelving systems for the efficient storage and management of smaller aircraft parts. Combined with improved airport connectivity and the support of B&H Worldwide's dedicated customs team, the new location enables faster cargo processing and more responsive support for customers operating in highly demanding environments.

"Our new Auckland facility represents an important step in strengthening our service offering for the aerospace sector in New Zealand," said Lee Hedges, Branch Manager, New Zealand, B&H Worldwide. "Its proximity to Auckland Airport, combined with our specialist customs expertise, secure storage capabilities and around-the-clock AOG support, enables us to respond quickly and efficiently to our customers' requirements. This move strengthens our ability to deliver the speed, reliability and operational excellence that the aerospace industry demands."

The relocation also strengthens B&H Worldwide's position within its global aerospace logistics network, improving connectivity between New Zealand and key aviation markets worldwide. Customers will benefit from streamlined cargo movement, enhanced operational responsiveness and access to B&H Worldwide's specialist expertise in managing complex aerospace supply chains.

As demand for efficient and resilient aerospace logistics solutions continues to grow, the new Auckland facility provides a strong foundation for future development, enabling B&H Worldwide to support increasing inventory volumes, new customer programmes and the evolving needs of the aviation industry.
