

Waldorf, MD Personal Injury Attorney Secures $1.1M for Car Accident Victim in Confidential Settlement

WALDORF, MD, UNITED STATES, August 25, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Farmer & Klopfer is proud to announce that Attorney James E. Farmer secured a $1,100,000 confidential settlement on behalf of a client who suffered serious injuries in a car crash in 2023. The settlement, reached in January of 2026, followed a thorough investigation and intense negotiations with the insurance company, resulting in a maximum recovery for the client.

The case stemmed from a car accident in which a reckless, speeding driver lost control of their vehicle and collided head-on into the client's car, causing the young client to suffer multiple fractures. Attorney Farmer spoke directly with the treating surgeons from the hospital's emergency department, who provided letters indicating that the client may develop arthritis in the future and could require additional surgery. Keeping these long-term health consequences in mind, Mr. Farmer hired an expert life care planner to estimate the client's future medical needs and associated costs. That projection played a central role in maximizing the recovery obtained from the insurance company.

Farmer & Klopfer pursues real compensation on behalf of people injured in preventable, negligent accidents. As a result of this tireless advocacy, the firm has earned hundreds of positive reviews from clients who have trusted the team with their legal claims.
