

Epic Roofing & Construction Launches New Website to Enhance Customer Experience

Epic Roofing announces the launch of its updated website, providing an intuitive, streamlined experience for customers seeking reliable roofing services.

DENTON, TX, UNITED STATES, August 24, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Epic Roofing & Construction

Our goal has always been to provide peace of mind to our community through high-quality roofing, and that starts with the very first interaction” is proud to announce the official launch of its newly redesigned website, <https://epicroofing360.com/>. The new digital platform is designed to offer a seamless, user-friendly experience, making it easier than ever for local homeowners and businesses to connect with expert roofing professionals and discover the comprehensive services they offer.

Wayne Horner

Understanding that a damaged or aging roof requires prompt and reliable attention, Epic Roofing & Construction has built a website centered entirely around the customer's needs. The streamlined navigation allows visitors to quickly find detailed information regarding roof repairs, full replacements, routine inspections, and preventative maintenance.

Key features of the new website include:

- Mobile-Friendly Design: Ensuring customers can easily request emergency services or browse options directly from their smartphones or tablets.
- Clear Service Outlines: Detailed breakdowns of residential and commercial roofing solutions, helping clients make informed decisions about their properties.
- Simplified Contact and Booking: An easy-to-use digital contact form that allows customers to request a free estimate or consultation in just a few clicks.
