“Making the Inc. 5000 once is an accomplishment. Reaching it for the sixth time—and becoming the first bullion dealer to do so in this timeframe—is something our entire team can be proud of,” said Chase Turner, CEO of SD Bullion. “This recognition ultimately comes back to our customers. Their trust has allowed us to grow while staying focused on what built SD Bullion in the first place: providing physical precious metals at highly competitive prices and delivering the level of service customers expect when purchasing gold and silver.”

Gold, Silver and Platinum at Competitive Prices

SD Bullion offers investors and collectors an extensive selection of physical gold, silver coins, and platinum, ranging from widely recognized sovereign-mint coins to bars, rounds, specialty products, and certified collectibles.

Customers can shop a wide selection of popular bullion products from leading private mints, with options suited for everyone from first-time buyers to experienced investors making larger acquisitions. By maintaining a broad inventory while emphasizing low premiums and competitive pricing, SD Bullion helps make physical precious metals more accessible to Americans looking to own tangible assets outside the traditional financial system.

SD Bullion was founded in 2012 and has grown into the top independent precious metals dealer serving investors and collectors across the United States. The company buys and sells physical precious metals and offers gold, silver, and platinum products to customers seeking direct ownership of bullion.

As SD Bullion celebrates the milestone, the company remains focused on the principles that have fueled its growth: competitive prices, low premiums, a wide selection of precious metals, reliable fulfillment, and a commitment to helping customers own physical gold, silver, and platinum.
