

Davis Street Hosts Annual Emerald Gala Celebrating Community Impact and Support

SAN LEANDRO, CA, UNITED STATES, August 24, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Davis Street Community Center is proud to announce its annual Emerald Gala, an evening dedicated to celebrating community impact and raising funds to continue providing essential programs and services throughout the community.

Taking place on Thursday, August 27, 2026, the Emerald Gala will bring together community leaders, partners, donors, and local businesses for an evening featuring dinner, entertainment, community recognition, and opportunities to support Davis Street's mission of strengthening lives and building a healthier community.

For more than 50 years, Davis Street has provided vital resources to children, families, adults, and seniors throughout the region through comprehensive services including healthcare, childcare, basic needs assistance, and support programs for individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

"Every day, we see the impact that community support can have on the lives of the people we serve," said Daniel Johnson, CEO of Davis Street Community Center. "The Emerald Gala is an opportunity to celebrate the incredible work happening at Davis Street while bringing together those who believe in our mission."

Funds raised through the Emerald Gala will help support and grow Davis Street's programs, ensuring that the community has access to the resources they need to thrive.

Community members, local businesses, and supporters are invited to attend and join Davis Street in celebrating a legacy of compassion, service, and community impact.
