

Wade Litigation Named California's 2026 Best Law Firm

American Institute of Trial Lawyers recognizes Wade Litigation following a selection process that includes peer nominations and third-party research.

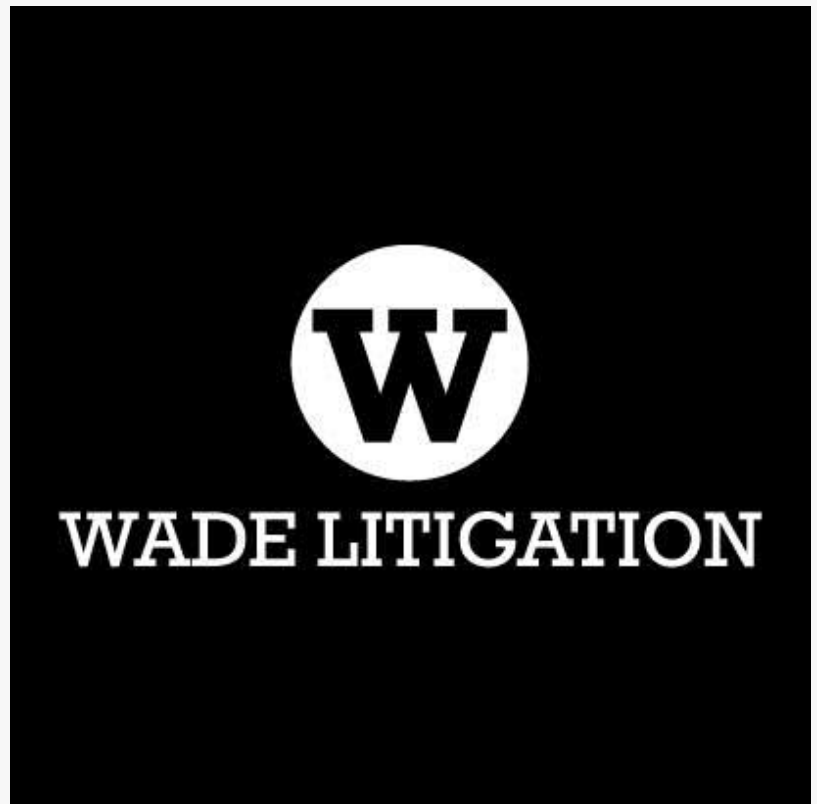

LOS GATOS, CA, UNITED STATES, August 24, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- LOS GATOS, Calif. — Wade Litigation has been named California's 2026 Best Law Firm by the American Institute of Trial Lawyers, recognizing the firm's commitment to client service and its work in civil, family, business, and probate litigation.

The American Institute of Trial Lawyers is an invitation-only professional organization composed of law firms and trial attorneys from across the United States. According to the organization, firms and attorneys considered for recognition must meet stringent qualifications and demonstrate strong professional standing and positive client feedback.

The selection process includes multiple phases, including peer nominations and third-party research. Law firms must also be in good standing with their applicable professional and regulatory organizations. Membership and recognition are extended to a select number of firms and attorneys within each state or region.

For Wade Litigation, the 2026 recognition reflects the collective work of the firm's attorneys and legal professionals, as well as their continued focus on representing clients in complex disputes.

"This is obviously a team effort, and we continue to measure our success by the satisfaction of our clients and the strength of our results. We are all honored," said Amiel Wade of Wade Litigation.
