

Legacy Jewelry Estate Buyers Expands Fine Jewelry, Diamond and Watch Buying Across Boca Raton and South Florida

With gold prices near historic highs, the Boca Raton-based buyer widens its reach to serve sellers throughout the region

BOCA RATON, FL, UNITED STATES,
August 25, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ --
As gold prices hold near historic highs — up more than 25% since early 2025 and hundreds of dollars per ounce above where they stood a year ago — a growing number of South Florida residents are looking to sell gold, estate jewelry, diamonds, and luxury watches. In response to that rising demand, Legacy Jewelry Estate Buyers, an established evaluator and purchaser of premium estate assets and luxury goods, today announced the expansion of its specialized buying services throughout Boca Raton and the broader South Florida region.

Backed by more than three decades of industry experience, the company is increasing its capacity to appraise and purchase fine jewelry, certified diamonds, luxury timepieces, precious metals, and rare coins directly from the public. The expansion gives residents across Palm Beach and Broward counties — including Boca Raton, Delray Beach, Boynton Beach, and West Palm Beach — a secure, local, and transparent venue to sell high-value personal assets, offering a reliable alternative to online-only buyers or mail-in services through in-person, on-the-spot appraisals at its Boca Raton storefront.

“With gold and luxury watch values where they are today, many people are sitting on far more value than they realize — often in a drawer they haven’t opened in years,” said Tomer Oami, Owner of Legacy Jewelry Estate Buyers. “Our job is to give them an honest, expert appraisal in person, explain exactly how we reach the number, and pay them on the spot. No pressure, no waiting, no mailing valuables to a stranger.”

Comprehensive Purchasing of Luxury Timepieces and Diamonds

The company's buying division actively purchases pre-owned and unworn luxury watches from premium makers, including Rolex, Patek Philippe, and Audemars Piguet. Certified professionals evaluate each timepiece based on its condition, current market demand, and authenticity, ensuring clients receive an accurate and fair market offer.

In addition to high-end watches, Legacy Jewelry Estate Buyers specializes in evaluating and purchasing diamonds of all sizes and cuts. The team handles certified diamonds, loose stones, and heirlooms, alongside a variety of precious gems such as sapphires, rubies, and emeralds. Each stone undergoes a precise, objective evaluation to determine its current market value before a purchase offer is presented.

Estate Jewelry, Gold, and Rare Coins

The expanded buying services also cover a broad category of jewelry and metals. The firm purchases designer, vintage, and estate jewelry collections, allowing clients to liquidate inherited items or single pieces with confidence. Through its gold buying services, the company actively buys all forms of gold, including gold bullion, scrap gold, and broken jewelry, as well as platinum and silver. Additionally, collectors and estate executors can bring in rare and collectible coins for expert valuation and immediate purchase.

Transparent Appraisals and Immediate Payment

A central component of the company's service model is its practical, transparent approach to purchasing. Appraisals are conducted by trained and certified professionals who explain the valuation process directly to the client. There is no cost, pressure, or obligation associated with the appraisal. When a client accepts an offer, the company provides immediate, on-the-spot payment, eliminating the waiting periods and complications often associated with auction houses, consignment, or online selling platforms.

By growing its dedicated estate and jewelry buying division in Boca Raton, the firm aims to ensure that more South Florida residents have access to fair, competitive valuations and secure, immediate transactions.
