

Haunted Field of Screams Opens Early Bird Ticket Sale With $7 Off Admission

Limited-time savings available now through Sept. 7 for select nights in the attraction's 26th season

THORNTON, CO, UNITED STATES, August 25, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Haunted Field of Screams, Colorado's largest haunted attraction located on McKay Road in Thornton, Colorado, opened its early bird ticket sales, offering $7 off general admission tickets for a limited purchase window.

The discount applies to general admission tickets valid on Sept. 25–27 and Oct. 2–4 only. Tickets must be purchased between Aug. 24, and Sept. 7 to receive the discount. Use EARLYBIRD2026 at checkout to redeem.

Early bird pricing is our way of rewarding the guests who plan ahead. Once we move to dynamic pricing on Sept 8, prices shift with demand, so this two-week window is the best rate we offer all season.”

Starting Sept. 8, the attraction moves to its normal dynamic pricing structure, in which ticket costs vary by date. Guests who want the lowest price for those early-season nights are encouraged to purchase before the window closes.

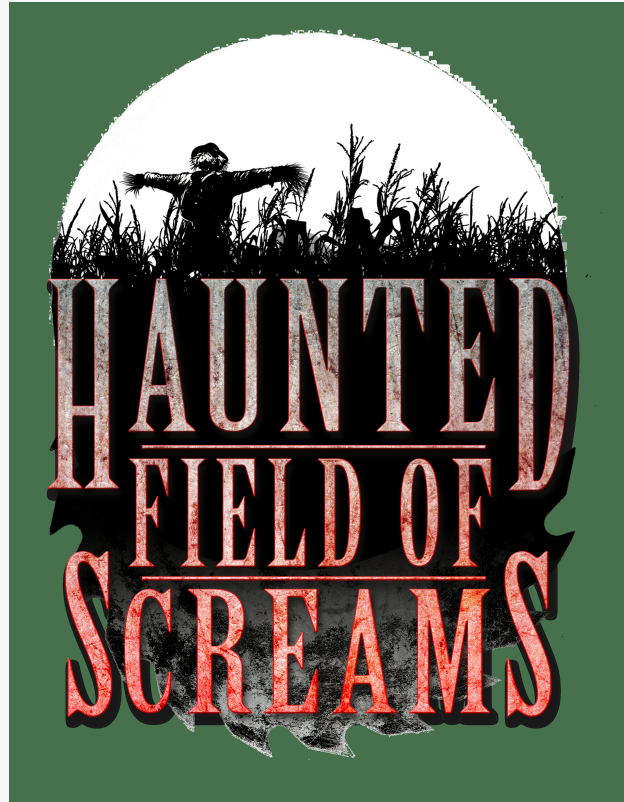

The Haunted Field of Screams uses timed ticket entry, meaning each ticket includes a window to arrive and enter the queue line. The attraction does not offer group rates or refunds. What began as a single corn path with a handful of hand-built scenes has grown into a full-scale outdoor haunt featuring more than 80 actors, multiple haunted houses, a wagon ride, a haunted forest walk-through, and a cornfield encounter, adding up to an approximately 40-minute immersive experience.

About Haunted Field of Screams
Haunted Field of Screams, Colorado's largest haunted attraction located on McKay Road in Thornton, Colorado, is built each fall inside a 40-acre cornfield along an 11-mile stretch long rumored to be Colorado's most haunted road. The attraction, "A Ride to the Riverdale Gates of Hell," guides guests through multiple haunted houses, wooded chase sequences, cornfield and more. Named Denver's Best Haunted House by Westword in 2025, the attraction is not recommended for children and is open select nights each fall. More information is available at hauntedfieldofscreams.com.
