

DAVID DAUGHTRY RETURNS WITH POWERFUL NEW ALBUM DON'T LET GO, AVAILABLE NOW

Produced by Award-Winning Producer Asaph Alex Ward, the Fresh, Churchy, Powerful and Anointed Project Features an All-Star Lineup of Musicians

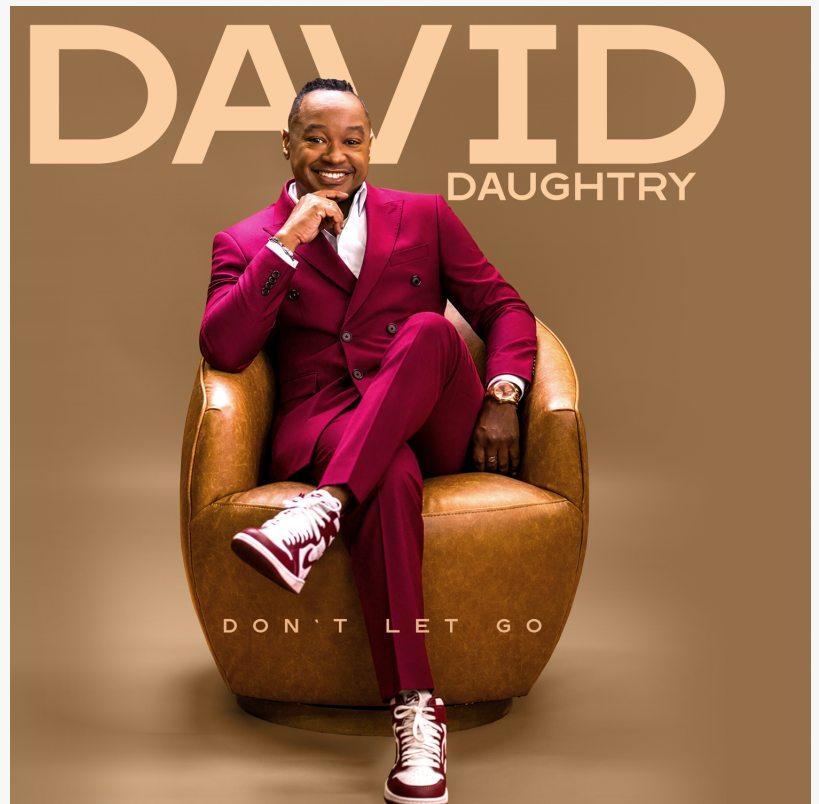

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, August 25, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Gospel recording artist, musician and actor David Daughtry is ready to give gospel music lovers something to sing, shout and praise about. His highly anticipated new album, DON'T LET GO, will be released Tuesday, August 25, 2026, on all major digital music and streaming platforms.

Fresh. Churchy. Powerful. Anointed. Those four words capture the spirit of DON'T LET GO, a project filled with the unmistakable energy of the church while showcasing Daughtry's signature vocals, musicianship and passion for ministry. From beginning to end, the album delivers songs designed to encourage, inspire and remind listeners of the faithfulness of God.

DON'T LET GO is a message I believe somebody needs right now. Whatever you are facing, whatever the circumstances may look like, don't let go of your faith.”

Led by the single “The Good Shepherd,” DON'T LET GO features a collection of songs that move seamlessly from worship to high-energy praise. Among the album's standouts are “Lift Him Up,” “That's Why I Praise Him,” “Leap 2.0” and many more. It is a project created for gospel music lovers who still love great singing, great musicianship and the authentic sound and spirit of the church.

“This project comes from a very personal place for me,” says Daughtry. "DON'T LET GO is a message I believe somebody needs right now. Whatever you are facing, whatever the circumstances may look like, don't let go of your faith. Don't let go of your praise. And most importantly, don't let go of God. I poured my heart into this music, and my prayer is that every song ministers to people wherever they are and reminds them that God has not forgotten them."

AN AWARD-WINNING PRODUCER AND EXCEPTIONAL MUSICIANS

Helping bring the sound and musical vision of DON'T LET GO to life is award-winning producer Asaph Alex Ward, whose production provides the foundation for a project that is contemporary yet deeply rooted in the sound of the church.

Ward and Daughtry are joined by an exceptional group of musicians whose collective musicianship gives DON'T LET GO its dynamic live energy, musical depth and authentic gospel sound.

A LISTENING PARTY TURNS INTO A PRAISE PARTY

The excitement surrounding DON'T LET GO was on full display this past weekend when Daughtry hosted an advance listening party for the new project. The room was packed to capacity with family, friends, supporters, music industry guests and well-wishers eager to experience the new music.

The anticipation was palpable—and Daughtry delivered.

What began as an album listening event quickly became much more. Throughout the evening, songs were met with standing ovations, spontaneous praise breaks and emotional moments, with some attendees moved to tears by the powerful messages and worship woven throughout the project.

A CAREER ROOTED IN MUSIC, MINISTRY AND EXCELLENCE

A highly sought-after psalmist and accomplished musician, Daughtry has been a fixture in gospel music and entertainment for more than two decades. His solo recording career began with his self-titled album, David Daughtry, which reached No. 12 on Billboard's Gospel Albums chart and No. 28 on the Heatseekers Albums chart. He later released The Songbook of David, Volume One, featuring the fan favorite "I Can't Forget."

Throughout his career, Daughtry has lent his voice to performances with some of music's most recognized artists, including Aretha Franklin, Michael Bublé, Beyoncé and Yolanda Adams. His talents have also taken him beyond music, with film appearances in Woman Thou Art Loosed, Something New and First Sunday, as well as television appearances including The American Bible Challenge and Parenthood.

But at the heart of David Daughtry's artistry remains ministry. His mission is simple: use his gifts to glorify God, encourage people and create music that can help change lives.

Get ready. Turn it up. And DON'T LET GO.

David Daughtry's DON'T LET GO is available now, on major streaming and digital music platforms, including Apple Music/iTunes and Spotify.
