“Motion Access has earned a reputation as a trusted provider of automatic entrance solutions, and we are excited to welcome their team into the Horton family. This acquisition strengthens our aftermarket and service capabilities, expands our product offering, and reinforces our commitment to delivering innovative solutions and exceptional support to customers throughout North America. We look forward to building on our shared strengths and creating new opportunities for growth together,” said Kelly Terry, President and CEO of Overhead Door Corporation.

“Finding the right long-term home for Motion Access was one of the most important decisions we have made as owners. Horton shares our dedication to customers, our passion for innovation, and our belief that great people are the foundation of a successful business. We are excited to join the Horton family and confident that this partnership will create new opportunities for our employees, strengthen the value we provide our customers, and support the continued growth of the business,” said Motion Access owners Joseph Madden, Robert Oakley, Gilbert Valencia, and Michael Valencia.
