The reopening marks a significant milestone for the Treasure Island community, which has been working to rebuild and revitalize after Hurricane Helene.

“

Florida's Gulf Coast has a special place in my heart, having grown up on the beaches of Fort Myers.”

Travis Shelhorse, President & CEO of {verdigreen}

The renovation has breathed new life into the property, blending its signature retro-chic, Mid-Century aesthetic with modern amenities designed to pamper and delight.

At the heart of the refresh is a stunning new pool deck and cabana experience, available to both overnight guests and daycation visitors. Guests can reserve Standard or Premium Cabanas, complete with poolside serenity and sweeping Gulf views — all just steps from the uncrowded, white-sand shores of Sunset Beach.

Travis Shelhorse, President & CEO of {verdigreen}, expressed his enthusiasm for the reopening: "We are grateful to be a part of the revitalization of Sunset Beach with our new cabana concept that focuses both on Treasure Island tourism and serving the local community. Florida's Gulf Coast has a special place in my heart, having grown up on the beaches of Fort Myers."

To celebrate the launch, Sunset Inn and Cabanas is offering introductory pricing for first-time cabana bookers, as well as an exclusive discount for Treasure Island and St. Petersburg residents — a nod to the property's deep commitment to its neighbors.

Beyond the pool, the property continues to offer its charming Mid-Century guest rooms, a private courtyard, and a check-in shop stocked with refreshments.
