

Medical Aesthetics in Brooklyn Emphasizes Personalized, Natural-Looking Results

Dr. Olga Zilberstein brings nearly two decades of specialized expertise to non-surgical aesthetic procedures.

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, August 26, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Dr. Olga Zilberstein, with nearly two decades of experience, leads Medical Aesthetics, a practice focused on natural-looking cosmetic and therapeutic solutions in Brooklyn and Long Island. Transitioning from her early career as an emergency room physician, Olga has specialized in aesthetic medicine, a field she has practiced for almost 20 years. Her approach emphasizes subtle enhancements tailored to individual patient needs.

Medical Aesthetics prioritizes personalized, anatomy-based care to honor each patient's unique features. Olga blends medical understanding with artistic application, specializing in advanced non-surgical procedures. These include non-surgical facelifts, non-surgical nose jobs utilizing neuromodulators like Botox and Dysport, various fillers, biostimulators such as Radiesse and Sculptra, and thread lifts. This patient-centered methodology aims to provide results that align with the patient's natural appearance.

Olga's contributions to the field extend to international platforms, where she has presented her work at conferences in Kolhida, Georgia, Dubai, UAE, and Miami, USA. Her work has included addressing patient concerns ranging from severe scarring to Bell's palsy, and she has provided solutions for individuals seeking alternatives to surgical interventions, such as a professional boxer who achieved a lifted and straightened nasal profile through non-surgical methods after multiple prior surgical attempts.

"Our objective at Medical Aesthetics is to provide enhancements that respect and complement a
