Top New York Divorce Attorneys

The recognition reflects the firm's strong online reputation and the positive experiences shared by its clients. TrustAnalytica's profile for Brian D. Perskin & Associates highlights the firm's 4.8 out of 5 star rating, with clients consistently praising the attorneys' communication, responsiveness, legal knowledge, and commitment to guiding clients through difficult legal matters. The recognition reinforces the firm's longstanding commitment to providing trusted legal counsel and exceptional client service.

For decades, Brian D. Perskin & Associates has helped New Yorkers navigate some of life's most significant transitions. From straightforward divorces to high-conflict custody disputes, high-asset divorces, and other complex family law matters, the firm has earned a reputation for practical legal guidance tailored to each client's unique circumstances. That dedication has helped establish what the firm proudly describes as a longstanding tradition of divorce law excellence in New York City.

Today, Brian D. Perskin & Associates represents clients in a broad range of divorce and family law matters, including contested and uncontested divorce, child custody, child support, spousal support, equitable distribution, divorce mediation, prenuptial and postnuptial agreements, visitation, and other related family law issues. Every case is approached with the understanding that no two families are alike. The attorneys take the time to understand each client's goals, explain the legal process clearly, and develop strategies designed to protect what matters most.

As the firm continues to serve families across New York City, it remains committed to the values that have shaped its reputation from the beginning while embracing the next generation of legal leadership. Attorney Jared Perskin continues that tradition by combining the firm's decades of experience with a modern, client-focused approach to communication, advocacy, and problem-solving.

"While every family law case is different, our commitment remains the same: making sure every client feels heard, informed, and supported throughout the process. We're proud to carry forward the values our firm was built on while continuing to provide the personalized representation our clients deserve."
