Jaime Pack And Jodey Fey

With a combined 31 years of experience in the real estate sector, Jaime and Jodey bring extensive knowledge to the Park City market. Both have been long-term residents of the area since the early 1990s, offering a local perspective that spans market trends, resort amenities, and community developments. The team specializes in a diverse portfolio including residential, luxury, new construction, investment properties, and vacation homes, guiding clients through the intricacies of the Park City real estate landscape.

Their intimate understanding of Park City extends beyond transactional details to encompass the broader community, including local education systems and cultural events. This detailed local expertise enables Jaime and Jodey to assist clients in identifying not just properties, but suitable neighborhoods that align with their lifestyle and investment goals within the competitive Park City real estate market. The team's commitment to excellence has also been recognized with the Berkshire Hathaway HomeServices Chairman's Circle Platinum award in prior years. Clients frequently commend Pack and Fey for their professional approach, profound market knowledge, and adept negotiation skills throughout the buying and selling processes.

"We are honored to be nominated for the 2025 Christie's Master Circle," said Jaime Pack, Principal of Pack | Fey Real Estate. "This recognition reflects our team's dedication to understanding the unique dynamics of the Park City luxury market and providing unparalleled service to our clients."
