

Corinne Entratter Sidney Releases Memoir Exposing Stars, Scandals, and Las Vegas Power Brokers During the Rat Pack Era

The new book recounts the life of a model, performer, and insider who intersected Hollywood's Golden Age and the Height of Las Vegas Entertainment.

LAS VEGAS, NV, UNITED STATES, September 3, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In coordination with Aurelium Press, former Playboy model Corinne Entratter Sidney and co-author Jeff Burbank have released their book, Private Stock: My life as a Playboy model, Hollywood actress, and wife of the man who created the Rat Pack. The new book recounts a life that intersected with Hollywood, Las Vegas, and the entertainment industry at extraordinary moments. It offers the perspective of someone who experienced those worlds as both a performer and an insider.

Corinne (Cole) Entratter Sidney releases her memoir about living in Hollywood's golden age and the height of Las Vegas Entertainment.

Working professionally as Lari Laine, Corinne's career brought her into contact with the entertainment industry's most powerful personalities, while her marriage to Sands Hotel and Casino executive Jack Entratter placed her at the center of the Las Vegas entertainment machine. Her gripping new memoir places the Rat Pack's legendary performers within the working environment behind their public image, offering a look at rehearsals, musicians, writers, producers, celebrity guests, and the demanding machinery of Las Vegas nightlife. The memoir takes readers back in time through immersive storytelling, offering an up-close, personal look at iconic places where legends were made, from the Sands and the Copa Room to Beverly Hills society and Hollywood auditions. The memoir offers a unique perspective rooted in Corinne's experiences and perceptions as a rising performer.

Corinne Entratter Sidney appeared on some 30 magazine covers before receiving Playboy's Miss

May title in 1958, while also establishing herself as an actress. In addition to her appearances in renowned TV productions and films such as You Bet Your Life, The Adventures of Ozzie and Harriet, Peter Gunn, and Blake Edwards's The Party, she was also a co-host of Del Moore's Late Late Show, where she made more than 130 appearances.

Jeff Burbank is an award-winning journalist and author of five books, originally from Flint, Michigan. With a career spanning more than four decades, he has written thousands of stories and served as an editor and wire-service bureau reporter. His work has appeared in notable publications, including the Daily Mail, Washington Post, and Los Angeles Times, and he has appeared in numerous documentaries.

Corinne Entratter Sidney and Jeff Burbank are available for interviews.
