Duliban Insurance LTD*

“Tripemco is a perfect fit for our organization,” said Jason Duliban, President of Duliban. “We are thrilled to be able to merge with Tripemco and begin an exciting new chapter while remaining committed to trusted relationships and long-term growth. This deal strengthens our presence in the marketplace, enhances our abilities and provides increased opportunities for both of our teams.

“Our corporate strategy remains partnering with key brokerages with family values and a community focus” said Lorne McDougall, VP of McDougall Insurance. “Tripemco is an organization that complements our vision perfectly – who cares deeply about their clients and staff. I know our combined organization will benefit greatly from Tripemco’s expertise and leadership.”

Vince Vaccarello, a second generation leader of Tripemco, will continue as president of the organization post-transaction and integrate with McDougall's leadership team while Paul Vaccarello, Tripemco's CEO, will transition into a well-earned retirement.

"Our goal from the very beginning of this process was to make our business better; for our clients and our staff", said Vince. "With this deal we've successfully met our objective – and the whole Tripemco team are excited for what lies ahead."

"Throughout my career I've always cared about looking after the people who have looked after me", added Paul Vaccarello. "I am happy to know that as I take my foot off the gas, Tripemco's clients, staff and other stakeholders are looking at a brighter future than ever before."

Duliban and McDougall are committed to supporting Tripemco in maintaining the high standards of professionalism and customer service that Tripemco's clients have come to expect.
