NOAH Bridges Cultures With Electrifying New Single ‘MOVE YA BODY’

LONDON, GREATER LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, August 27, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Rising artist NOAH returns with his vibrant new single, "MOVE YA BODY", an irresistible dance anthem that blends Brazilian funk, amapiano, gqom and EDM-pop into an electrifying soundtrack for the summer.

A mononymous singer with roots in Ethiopia, NOAH creates music that bridges cultures and generations. Born in London, raised in Ethiopia and now based back in London, he draws deeply from his African heritage while seamlessly weaving together different music styles. The result is a distinctive sound that feels both fresh and familiar, rooted in stories of hope, connection, dance and renewal.

With its confident energy, infectious rhythms and crowd-ready hooks, "MOVE YA BODY" is designed to get people on their feet. Built for parties, festivals and dancefloors alike, the single captures the carefree spirit of living in the moment and celebrating life through movement.

Speaking about the track, NOAH says: “‘MOVE YA BODY’ is an anthem for everyone to just dance and feel free and live life as if it’s a hot summer day and you’re at a party with all your friends.”

Reflecting on the creative process, he explains: “It was a chant in my head and I recorded it as a joke at first, then I slowly started creating the beat for it with my producer and it became an anthem for dance and confidence.”

With its powerful fusion of African-inspired rhythms and contemporary global dance sounds, "MOVE YA BODY" continues NOAH's mission of creating music that brings people together. The single invites listeners to let go, embrace confidence and celebrate the universal language of music and movement.

As NOAH continues to carve out his own space in today's music landscape, "MOVE YA BODY" showcases his ability to combine cultural influences with modern production, delivering a feelgood song that's impossible to resist.
