

The History-Making Global Launch Of Brand Savage & Industry-First 1-Second Pay

Power couple, Bob and Kristie Reina, are set to dominate the industry and shatter long-standing records with the upcoming global launch of Brand Savage.

TAMPA, FL, UNITED STATES, August 27, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Brand Savage, founded by Network Marketing veterans Bob and Kristie Reina, will officially launch globally on Wednesday, September 16, 2026, introducing a new business model that combines professional branding and design with a fast-paying global Promoter opportunity.

Brand Savage was created to make world-class branding more accessible to entrepreneurs, startups, influencers, and businesses of every size. The company offers approximately 40 professional creative services, including custom logos, complete brand identity systems, social media graphics, business essentials, apparel and merchandise, packaging, marketing materials, vehicle wraps, trade show displays, and more.

“People form an opinion about your brand in less than a second. With Brand Savage, you can make that first impression unforgettable,” said Founder & CEO Bob Reina. “We make professional branding and design ridiculously simple.”

Brand Savage works with what the company describes as the world’s top 1% of designers, with all designs created by humans, not AI. Branding Credit Packages start at $99 USD and range up to $5,000 USD. One Branding Credit equals one U.S. dollar, credits never expire, and larger packages include up to $750 in bonus credits. Most projects are delivered in approximately 72 hours and include unlimited revisions and full ownership of the completed design.

“We wanted to remove the high prices, long timelines, subscriptions, and frustration people often associate with professional design,” said Co-Founder Kristie Reina. “Customers pay only for the services they need, and our team handles the rest.”

The company is launching in more than 100 countries, with its website and core materials professionally translated into 17 languages.

Brand Savage is also introducing its 1-Second Pay opportunity for Promoters. Rather than waiting days or weeks for eligible commissions, the company says commissions can be credited within seconds of a completed sale. The Compensation Plan also includes a 100-100 binary structure, $25 cycles, Fast Start commissions, matching bonuses, Lifestyle Bonuses, a Founder’s Pool, 5-Star incentive trips, and custom recognition rings at major lifetime earning milestones.

“If you’re going to promote something, promote something great,” said Bob Reina. “The Compensation Plan is built to work with Promoters, not against them.”

Brand Savage says its model was designed for simple duplication. Two short videos—a one-minute Product Video and a two-minute Opportunity Video—allow prospects to understand the company’s services and business opportunity in approximately three minutes.

Momentum has continued to build throughout the company’s pre-launch, with experienced industry leaders joining from markets around the world.

“In my 35 years of MLM, this is the most pre-launch momentum I have ever seen,” said Bob Reina.

The company’s culture is centered around a simple rallying cry: ALL GAS. NO BRAKES.—a reflection of its focus on speed, energy, innovation, and forward momentum.
