

NEWS ALERT: 'THE WYETHS' EXHIBITION EXTENDED THROUGH SEPTEMBER 27 AT THE NAPA VALLEY MUSEUM OF ART & CULTURE

Bank of America Wyeths Collection Exhibition at The MAC Extended for Two Additional Weeks

ST. HELENA, CA, UNITED STATES, August 27, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Napa Valley Museum of Art & Culture (The MAC) announces that "The Wyeths: Three Generations | Works from the Bank of America Collection" has been extended through Sunday, September 27, 2026. Visitors now have two additional weeks to experience works spanning three generations of the celebrated Wyeth family.

The exhibition brings together 75 paintings, drawings and mixed-media works spanning three generations of the Wyeth family, including N.C. Wyeth, Andrew Wyeth and Jamie Wyeth, along with works by Henriette Wyeth and Peter Hurd.

Presented in California for the first time, the exhibition explores more than a century of American art through the distinctive perspectives of three generations of the Wyeth family.

"We're delighted to be able to give visitors two more weeks to experience this extraordinary exhibition," said

Laura Rafaty, Executive Director of Napa Valley Museum. "The response to the Wyeths at The MAC has been tremendous, and this extension gives both our local community and visitors to

About Napa Valley Museum

What began over 50 years ago as a small museum dedicated to local history has evolved into today’s Napa Valley Museum, a vibrant cultural institution presenting innovative exhibitions of art, nature and history. The Museum now operates two locations: Napa Valley Museum Yountville (The NVMY) and its flagship The Napa Valley Museum of Art & Culture (The MAC) in St. Helena. Through exhibitions, educational programs, events and its growing physical and digital presence, Napa Valley Museum celebrates creative expression while connecting audiences with art, culture and the stories that shape our world.
