Managing Partner Erin L. Nunes and Spinner attended the South Coast Community Choice Awards ceremony, where both honors were announced alongside awards recognizing other businesses and professionals from throughout the region.

"We are incredibly grateful to our community for recognizing both our firm and Rebecca," said Nunes. "Our team cares deeply about the families we serve, and this recognition is especially meaningful because it comes from the community we have the privilege of working with every day."

Surprenant, Beneski & Nunes focuses its practice on estate planning and elder law, helping individuals and families protect their assets, prepare for long-term care needs, and plan for the future. The firm has offices in New Bedford, Easton, Hyannis, and Plymouth.

Spinner serves as a Senior Associate Attorney with the firm and works closely with clients on estate planning matters. Her recognition as Best Estate Planning Attorney reflects her commitment to providing personalized guidance to individuals and families as they make important decisions about their assets, loved ones, and legacies.

The South Coast Community Choice Awards highlight businesses and professionals selected by members of the community across a range of industries and categories.

“We’re fortunate to have a team that genuinely cares about the work we do and the people who trust us with their planning,” Nunes added. “To see the firm recognized as a whole while also celebrating Rebecca made the evening particularly memorable.”
