

Porter Extends Freight Factoring Referral Program Through September 30

New customers funded through Porter's freight factoring referral program by Sept. 30 earn $250; referring customers earn a standing $300 bonus.

BIRMINGHAM, AL, UNITED STATES, September 1, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Porter Freight Funding, a freight factoring and fuel card provider serving carriers and brokerages nationwide, today announced the extension of its customer referral program through September 30, 2026, reinforcing what the company calls one of the strongest standing referral incentives in the freight factoring industry.

It's about rewarding the trust our customers place in us by sharing Porter with someone who needs the same reliable partner they found in us.”

John Land, President, Porter Freight Funding

Under the program, existing Porter customers earn $300 for every new customer they refer who successfully funds their first invoice, a rate that applies at all times, with no expiration date and no promotional conditions attached. Newly referred customers who fund before September 30, 2026, earn an additional $250, a limited-time enhancement layered on top of Porter's already-standing bonus structure.

Key facts:

□ $300 standing referral bonus for existing Porter Freight

Funding customers, paid on every successful referral, with no end date

□ $250 limited-time bonus for newly referred customers who fund their first invoice before September 30, 2026

□ Open to referrals across Dry Van, Reefer, Flatbed, and Power Only carriers, and brokerages with at least one year of active experience, per underwriting approval

□ Bonuses are paid after the referred carrier or brokerage funds its first invoice with Porter Freight Funding, a Birmingham, Alabama-based freight factoring and fuel card company

"Our customers work hard for their money, and too often they're the ones waiting on it," said John Land, President of Porter Freight Funding. "This referral program isn't about a promotion with an expiration date. It's about rewarding the trust our customers place in us by sharing Porter with someone else who needs the same reliable partner they found in us. A $300 thank-you and a faster path to funding might seem small, but if it helps even one more trucking business stay on the road, it's worth doing every single day, not just for a limited time."

The extension reflects continued strong participation in Porter's referral program among its customer base of owner-operators, small fleets, and larger trucking companies.

Referrals can be submitted through Porter's freight factoring referral program, and payouts are processed after the referred carrier funds its first invoice. Full program terms are available at porterfreightfunding.com.

Frequently Asked Questions

How much can I earn by referring a carrier to Porter Freight Funding?

Existing Porter customers earn $300 for every new customer they refer who successfully funds their first invoice. Once a referred customer becomes a Porter customer, they can begin referring others right away and are eligible for that same $300 bonus going forward. This $300 bonus applies at all times and has no expiration date.

Is there a deadline to earn the referral bonus?

The $300 bonus paid to the existing Porter customer who makes the referral is a standing benefit with no deadline. The new customer being referred also earns an additional $250 if they fund their first invoice before September 30, 2026, under Porter's current promotional extension.

Who qualifies for Porter's freight factoring referral program?

Any current Porter Freight Funding customer can refer a new customer and earn $300 once that referral funds its first invoice. The new customer being referred, who must not already be
