The Cure by Design Gala, formerly known as the Belles and Beaus Ball, serves as a primary fundraising initiative for the Patrick F. Taylor Hope Lodge in New Orleans. This year marks the 20th anniversary of the Hope Lodge facility, which offers free accommodations to patients traveling for medical treatment.

Philip D. Lorio IV and his wife, Megan, are serving as co-chairs for the 26th annual event. During the broadcast, Lorio emphasized the meaningful impact of the Hope Lodge and highlighted the 2026 theme, "Light the Way."

The 2026 Cure by Design Gala takes place on Saturday, September 26, at Mardi Gras World in New Orleans. The black-tie event, presented by Ochsner MD Anderson Cancer Center, will honor 20 community members dedicated to advancing patient care, research, and local support services.

"We've been in the process of putting together that whole theme and making it really come to life, but it's beautiful because it is the 20th year of the Patrick F. Taylor Hope Lodge," said Lorio during the broadcast. "We are honoring 20 amazing people in the community who have been in the background, and we're trying to get them into the forefront to help raise money and sponsorships."
