

Nutraland USA Announces Exclusive Distribution Partnership for Somato® Tomato Fruit Extract in Indonesia

Partnership expands access to clinically studied tomato fruit extract for natural sleep support across Indonesia's growing health and wellness market.

IRVINE, CA, UNITED STATES, August 28, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Nutraland USA, Inc., a leading supplier and developer of clean, plant-based, science-backed nutraceutical ingredients, today announced an exclusive distribution partnership with PT Dian Cipta Perkasa to represent Somato® Tomato Fruit Extract throughout Indonesia.

Under the agreement, PT Dian Cipta Perkasa will serve as the exclusive distributor of Somato® across Indonesia, supporting dietary supplement, functional food, and wellness brands seeking clean-label, plant-based ingredients backed by scientific research.

Sanying Xu, President

Somato® is a patent-pending, whole-food derived, SA-GRAS affirmed tomato fruit extract containing a spectrum of naturally occurring tomato-derived compounds, including lycopene and GABA, and standardized to 5% phytemelatonin. This unique composition gives formulators an opportunity to differentiate sleep-support products with a familiar, food-derived ingredient consumers can recognize and trust.

“Indonesia represents an exciting opportunity for Somato® as consumer interest in natural sleep support continues to grow,” said Sanying Xu, President of Nutraland USA. “As a clinically studied tomato fruit extract, Somato® brings together clean-label positioning and scientific evidence that resonates with today's wellness-focused consumers. We are excited to partner with PT Dian Cipta Perkasa to introduce this innovative ingredient to the Indonesian market and support the development of next-generation sleep and wellness products."

Recent clinical research demonstrated that participants using Somato® experienced a 33% reduction in sleep latency, along with improvements in sleep quality and emotional well-being. The published pilot study provides peer-reviewed scientific support for Somato®'s whole-food derived approach to restful sleep.

"We are pleased to collaborate with Nutraland USA to introduce Somato® Tomato Fruit Extract to Indonesia. From a sourcing standpoint, we value ingredients with verified traceability, third-party authentication, and a transparent supply chain—Somato® reflects the quality and consistency we look for in raw materials. We look forward to working closely with Nutraland USA to bring this ingredient to the Indonesian market," added Theodore James Sumitaro, Raw Material Sourcing Manager, PT Dian Cipta Perkasa.

The agreement reflects Nutraland USA's ongoing commitment to building strategic regional partnerships and expanding access to plant-based ingredients backed by research, quality, and transparency. Somato® is Alkemist Assured™ and holds Non-GMO Project Verified, Vegan, org, Kosher, and Halal certifications, giving Indonesian formulators a documented, ready-to-specify ingredient as demand for natural sleep support accelerates.
