Kids Net Challenge Course

It is the goal of Sonoma Zipline Adventures and its parent company Alliance Redwoods Conference Grounds to be able to provide guests with a new way to spend more time in the Redwoods: problem-solving, teambuilding, and enjoying the unique ecosystem. With the introduction of a

Kids' Net Fun Zone, the entire family can now enjoy the award-winning thrill of a day at Sonoma Zipline Adventures. Everyone from guest groups, corporate offsites to Outdoor Education class groups will be able to utilize Redwood Aerial Adventure as a part of their stay at Alliance Redwoods.

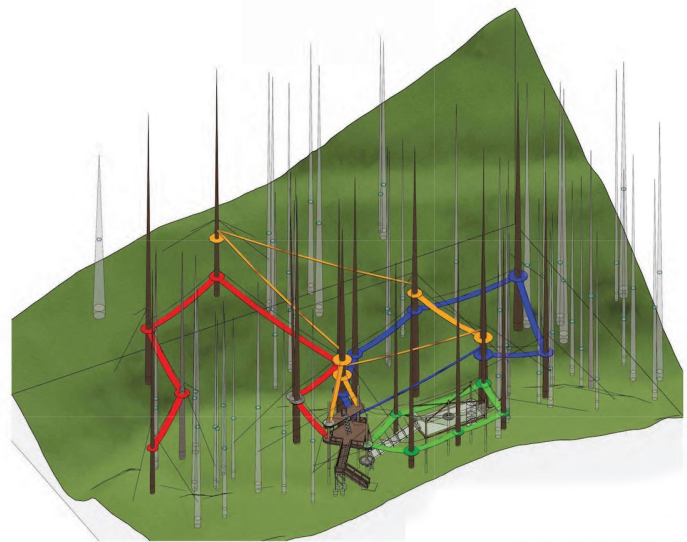

Participants will begin at an elevated, off-belay adventure deck and be presented with the option of four separate routes through the elements, varying in style and level of difficulty. Three of the routes exit via the primary adventure deck and the fourth starts and finishes at a second level. The most difficult of the routes culminates in an exciting rappel returning participants to the ground. In addition to these routes, there will be an off-belay, netted Kids' Netted Fun Zone reached from beneath the entry deck via a horizontal tube crawl. This Kids' Netted Fun Zone includes four challenge elements and a vertical tube crawl exit.

Alliance Redwoods Executive Director Dan Ferguson: "With the construction of the Redwood Aerial Adventure, we enter a new era at Sonoma Zipline Adventures and Alliance Redwoods Conference Grounds. This new adventure allows our guests to have tons of fun together as they spend time in our amazing Redwood forest and experience unique and thrilling challenges."
