

Fort Worth, TX Law Firm Announces Newest $1,500 Winner of Committing to Justice Scholarship

FORT WORTH, TX, UNITED STATES, August 31, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Hutchison & Foreman, PLLC is pleased to announce that Hope Singleton has been selected as the recipient of the firm's Committing to Justice Scholarship for the Fall 2026 semester. The scholarship supports current law students who plan to represent plaintiffs in employment discrimination and civil rights cases, helping the next generation of attorneys prepare for careers dedicated to protecting the rights of workers and individuals.

Hope is currently studying law at Florida A&M University, where she has focused her studies on the legal protections available to people facing discrimination and civil rights violations, with particular attention to expanding accessible spaces and accommodations for disabled individuals. Hutchison & Foreman is proud to support Hope as she continues working toward her JD.

The Committing to Justice Scholarship supports the firm's broader commitment to upholding the rights of the people it serves. Each semester, the scholarship awards $1,500 to one law student pursuing this kind of public interest work. Hutchison & Foreman is now accepting applications for the Spring 2027 semester, with a final submission deadline of December 21, 2026. Law students interested in applying can find more information through the firm's scholarship page at <https://www.fightsforright.com/scholarship>.
