Skilled Technicians Amid Steady
Growth

PARMA, Ohio - Sep 2026 - Parma Car Care Specialists is expanding its team and opening new positions for skilled auto repair technicians. The hiring effort supports steady growth in both everyday repair work and the shop's commercial fleet business. The hiring push comes as more drivers and businesses across the Parma area turn to the shop for service. To meet growing demand without extending turnaround times or cutting corners, the company is adding experienced technicians to its ASE-certified team. Ideal candidates can diagnose accurately, work efficiently, and maintain the standards regular customers have come to expect. Those interested can learn more and apply through the careers page at parmaccs.com.

A hiring announcement is a fitting milestone for a shop that has offered auto repair and maintenance services

in Parma, OH, since 1989. Its technicians handle a full range of vehicle care, including oil changes, brake repair, and engine diagnostics. They also provide fleet maintenance and management for local businesses across Parma, Brooklyn, and Cleveland. Adding to the team is meant to protect the two things the shop leans on most: quality work and clear, timely communication.

For growing local businesses and everyday drivers alike, the benefit is simple. More technicians in the bays can mean greater availability and shorter wait times. It also allows the company to maintain the same attention to detail as it grows.

A Message From the Owner

"Every car we take in is someone's way to get to work or run their business, so we won't grow faster than we can do great work," said Fred Cerny, owner of Parma Car Care Specialists. "Hiring the right technicians is how we keep our promises while we grow; people who care about the details and treat customers the way we have since 1989."
