Diaspora Creatives Awards 2026 will debut in Atlanta on November 21, 2026, under the theme "Stars Beyond Borders."

Diaspora Creatives Awards is more than an annual ceremony. It is a growing platform created to connect and recognize African talent across the United States, United Kingdom, Canada, Europe, Africa and beyond, while creating greater visibility for creatives building careers and influencing culture outside traditional geographic boundaries.

The inaugural ceremony will bring together artists, musicians, filmmakers, photographers, media professionals, entrepreneurs, industry executives, cultural advocates and members of the African diaspora for an evening centered on achievement, community and African entertainment, media, business, culture and the wider creative ecosystem.

Public voting for the inaugural awards is now underway, giving audiences around the world an opportunity to support nominated creatives across multiple categories through the official Diaspora Creatives Awards voting platform.

“African creativity does not stop at the border,” said Onor Alofoje, Founder and Executive Producer of Diaspora Creatives Awards. “Our stories, our talent and our cultural influence continue to travel around the world. DCA was created to recognize the extraordinary work African creatives are doing beyond their home countries, while building a platform that connects our global creative community. ‘Stars Beyond Borders’ is not simply a theme—it represents exactly what these creatives have become.”

The awards platform builds on the creative and cultural work of Kreate International LLC, whose previous projects have included community events, business exhibitions, cultural programming and Kreate Magazine. Diaspora Creatives Awards represents an expansion of that work into a global platform dedicated to African creative recognition, storytelling and connection.

Beyond its inaugural ceremony, DCA's long-term vision is to strengthen connections among African creatives across borders, amplify emerging and established voices, encourage collaboration and create opportunities for African talent throughout the global creative economy.

Diaspora Creatives Awards 2026 will take place Saturday, November 21, 2026, at Atlanta Virtual Studios, 4485 Fulton Industrial Blvd., Suite I, Atlanta, GA 30336. Red carpet begins at 6:00 PM, followed by the awards ceremony from 7:00 PM to 11:00 PM and the official after party from 11:00 PM to 2:00 AM.

Nominee information, voting, tickets, partnerships and event updates are available through the official Diaspora Creatives Awards website.
