Roll Tide Ready: The Landings of Northport Kicks Off Alabama Football Season

NORTHPORT, AL, UNITED STATES, September 5, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The countdown is on, the crimson is out, and The Landings of Northport is officially Roll Tide ready!

With Alabama football returning for another highly anticipated season, team members at The Landings of Northport are getting into the game day spirit early, trading their everyday attire for Alabama shirts, jerseys, and plenty of Crimson Tide pride.

For residents, Alabama football is more than what happens on the field. It is a tradition filled with Saturday afternoons, legendary games, family gatherings, favorite players, and memories that stretch across generations. This season, those traditions continue right at home at The Landings.

“Our residents have decades of Alabama football memories, and we love getting to be part of the next chapter,” said Sherry Washington. “There is something special about seeing our team members decked out in crimson and getting everyone excited for that first kickoff. Around here, game day is something we enjoy together.”
